SPECIAL SERVICE CONTACTS

Reference is made to SAC Letter #74 dated 10/16/50,
Special Service Contacts.

The Boston Division has the following Special Service Contacts:

SSC Bos 1 -- JOSEPH P. KENNEDY
SSC Bos 2 -- [REDACTED]
SSC Bos 4 -- [REDACTED]

The writer has met both Mr. KENNEDY and [REDACTED] and has attempted to meet [REDACTED] on several occasions. It is expected a contact will be made with [REDACTED] in the future.

No particular assignments have been given to any of the Special Service contacts. However, the writer is aware of the fact that Mr. Kennedy recently spoke with [REDACTED] about his articles concerning Civil Rights cases in which he criticized the Bureau. After which he telephonically spoke to Mr. Hoover.
MR. KENNEDY, of course, is extremely well connected in all fields of life and has expressed himself as being ready, willing and able to do anything he possibly can to help the Bureau. Should the Bureau have any problems in any field, domestic or international, it is felt Mr. Kennedy would not only be happy to serve the Bureau, but because of his widespread connections would be well able to do so.

SUBJECT: HONORABLE JOSEPH P. KENNEDY
SPECIAL SERVICE CONTACT

During a recent contact by SA [REDACTED] with Mr. JOSEPH P. KENNEDY, Mr. KENNEDY made reference to your testimony before the Subcommittee to investigate the administration of the Internal Security Act and other Internal Security Laws on November 17th last.

Although politically a democrat, Mr. KENNEDY stated that he disagreed with [REDACTED] and others who reportedly expressed the fear that your testimony might establish a dangerous precedent. He asserted that under the circumstances your action in testifying was so extremely well done it had a great beneficial effect upon that issue as well as the stature of the Bureau.

Recently, Mr. KENNEDY has been studying the operations and expenditures of the Department of Defense in connection with his duties as a member of the commission headed by former President HERBERT HOOVER, and he has been shocked at the serious waste and mismanagement of funds. He stated that the deeper he delves into the matter, the more he appreciates your work as Director and the Bureau's accomplishments; for, by comparison, the Bureau is one of the few federal organizations that is operated efficiently, said Mr. KENNEDY.

I thought you would like to have these comments from one who has been a long time friend of the Bureau.

Mr. Joseph P. Kennedy, former Ambassador to England, endeavored to reach the Director on the morning of May 11th. I returned the call through the New York Office, Murrayhill 9-2220, and explained that the Director was in a travel status. Kennedy stated that he had a matter of utmost importance to him, but that he did know I had the Director's confidence and he would advise me of what he wanted to talk to the Director about.

He then related that [REDACTED] of [REDACTED] staff had contacted a [REDACTED] regarding [REDACTED]; further that [REDACTED] had not been permitted to go to school at Camp Holabird, Maryland, because of <sup>an</sup> adverse FBI report which linked him to a group of "pinkos." Kennedy stated that he sent word to [REDACTED] that if he so much as printed a word about this that he would sue him for libel in a manner such as [REDACTED] had never been sued before. He further stated that he had sent [REDACTED] to see [REDACTED] and then contacted the Army; that the Army was incensed at the information which [REDACTED] had. Apparently some of the information which [REDACTED] had on [REDACTED] Army activities was accurate and Kennedy stated the Army was somewhat incensed over how the information got out. Kennedy stated that he was sick of the Washington situation; that the McCarthy-Stevens Hearings were a disgrace and that he simply was not going to tolerate [REDACTED] being victimized in any way, shape or form. He stated that [REDACTED] enlisted in the Army [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

I told Mr. Kennedy we would check into this matter immediately. Finding no identifiable information in the Bureau, I checked with ASAC Hargett of the Boston Office who likewise reported no identifiable record. I, accordingly, called Mr. Kennedy back and told him that I could find no record and that we certainly had not investigated [REDACTED] that this might be another case of throwing the name of the FBI around or of somebody confusing the FBI with some other investigative agency. Kennedy stated that he was certain that the FBI could not have disseminated such a report because [REDACTED] has never had an opportunity to "get mixed up with pinkos." I told Mr. Kennedy that he was authorized to state, if need be, that he checked with the FBI and the FBI had not investigated [REDACTED]. Kennedy further stated that [REDACTED] had talked to [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] did not contemplate using anything. [REDACTED] accused [REDACTED] of disseminating the story. This Kennedy could not stomach. (b)(7)(c)

He asked that his very best regards be extended the Director.

Kennedy stated he knew how unscrupulous [REDACTED] was as well as those who associated with him. He then told me that part of the story which [REDACTED] had was to the effect that he, Kennedy, had threatened to get the stars of General [REDACTED] and General [REDACTED]. He stated that yesterday was the first time that he ever knew that Generals by these names ever existed. (b)(7)(c)

RE: HONORABLE JOSEPH P. KENNEDY

Dear Mr. Hoover:

On July 1 I had the occasion to spend some time with Mr. Kennedy.

I had met many many people who are great admirers of yours, but I believe that Mr. Kennedy is the most vocal and forceful admirer that I have met. I found him to be a forceful, outspoken gentleman who takes great pride in his friendship with you.

As of possible interest, he mentioned that President Eisenhower had requested the Hoover Commission to investigate CIA. Mr. Kennedy advised that General Mark Clark would probably head up their investigative efforts. He also indicated he was leaving for Europe in just a little over a week and left the inference he expects to do some inquiring concerning CIA while he is abroad. He also advised it was his personal thought that President Eisenhower had asked the Hoover Commission to make this inquiry to forestall an investigation into CIA by Senator McCarthy.

In closing, I would like to mention that Mr. Kennedy expressed a personal liking and admiration for Special Agent [REDACTED] Resident Agent at Hyannis, Massachusetts. It is apparent that [REDACTED] contacts with Mr. Kennedy have been such as to merit Mr. Kennedy's good will.

Captioned individual telephoned today by long distance at 12:35 P.M. asking for assistance in locating Senator Joseph Kennedy. He stated that he had spent the last hour trying to locate the Senator in Boston, New York and Washington without success. It was suggested that he try to contact him through a member of the Kennedy family in Massachusetts or Rhode Island. He stated that he tried this without avail. He also used the term "Mayfair" cryptically and did not disclose his meaning of the word. He was advised that the writer did not personally know the present whereabouts of the Senator and regretted that he was unable to be of assistance to him.

No reference in the general indices of the Bureau could be located for [REDACTED] in Massachusetts.

SUBJECT: JOSEPH PATRICK KENNEDY
SPECIAL INQUIRY - WHITE HOUSE

On 2-25-55 Miss Phyllis Gardner of the White House requested a name check concerning Joseph Patrick Kennedy, former U.S. Ambassador to Great Britain, who is being considered for appointment to the President's Commission on Veterans Pensions. Bufiles reflect no complete investigation has been conducted concerning Kennedy; however, in May, 1951, Bureau conducted limited inquiry requested by Department concerning allegation that Kennedy, then owner of Merchandise Mart Building in Chicago, Illinois, gave $100,000 for removal of Government offices from building. The complainant claimed allegation was received by him from a friend, who when contacted by Bureau denied furnishing same. As no specific facts were developed, inquiry was closed on 6-7-51 at request of Department. Due to vagueness of allegation and lack of facts developed, this information is not being furnished to White House. (58-2402)

Bufiles reflect that according to 6-1-39 issue of "Foreign Observer" published in New York City, Kennedy, then Ambassador to Great Britain, was making statements to members of British Government regarding appeasement of Axis powers, which statements were allegedly confusing the British Government and questioned his ability to remain as Ambassador. This information being furnished to White House in attached letter. (94-3-4-763)

The following information not being furnished to White House due to vagueness of allegations and/or nature of the sources: In January, 1942, Bureau was advised that Inga Arvad, subject of Internal Security and Espionage - G investigation, had been carrying on an affair with John F. Kennedy (son of the Ambassador), then an Ensign in the U.S. Navy. During above investigation it was determined that in February, 1942, Arvad had spent several weekends with John Kennedy in a hotel room in Charleston, South Carolina. Investigation regarding Arvad was closed in 1945 as no subversive or espionage activities were determined. John F. Kennedy is presently a Senator from Massachusetts. (65-39058) In April, 1942, a source of unknown reliability furnished information indicating that James Roosevelt, prior to the repeal of prohibition, had secured U.S. liquor rights from England on basis his father was President. Due to pressure from U.S. liquor interests, James Roosevelt allegedly transferred these contacts to Kennedy who was purportedly appointed Ambassador to England so he could handle these contacts (100-99500). On 7-9-53 State Department furnished a summary concerning [REDACTED] reflecting that on 10-13-39, William Bullitt, former U.S. Ambassador in Paris, stated that when Kennedy was Ambassador in London, Kennedy called [REDACTED] every day, sometimes four times daily, to seek [REDACTED] advice on important issues, which advice Kennedy followed. Kennedy allegedly made large financial offers to [REDACTED] to obtain his full-time services (65-32871-184). In October, 1953, the Antitrust Division of the Department requested Bureau to conduct investigation concerning the importation and distribution of Scotch whiskey in the U.S., stating allegations were received implying that U.S. Ambassador to England possibly designates these agencies in U.S. and that members of Roosevelt family had sought these agencies and/or possibly owned interests in Somerset Company, Inc., Scotch whiskey importers, formerly owned by Joseph P. Kennedy. Extensive investigation, concluded in April, 1954, failed to develop any information substantiating allegations or revealing possible antitrust violations. Investigation revealed Kennedy family had owned Somerset Company, Inc., but that Joseph P. Kennedy was never an officer of the company and owned about 2% of its stock (60-4434-1,9,38). Kennedy was Special Service Contact of Boston Office, September, 1943, to September, 1954, and is now an SAC contact of that office. Kennedy has on numerous occasions expressed great admiration for the Director and the work of the Bureau (94-37808).

At 7:45 P.M., 1-7-56, ASAC Brent of the Miami office telephonically contacted the writer and advised that the Miami office had just received a telephone call from Kennedy requesting that the Director be advised that Kennedy would appreciate receiving a telephone call from the Director on the evening of 1-7-56. Brent advised that Kennedy could be contacted at Palm Beach, Florida, telephone number 4-3556. He also requested that he be advised whether or not the Director would be able to call Kennedy so that he could advise Kennedy whether or not to expect the call.

On instructions from Mr. Nichols the writer instructed the Bureau telephone operator to advise the Director of the above. The Bureau operator subsequently advised the writer that the Director had called Kennedy as soon as he was advised of Kennedy's request. On the instructions of Mr. Nichols, the writer telephonically contacted ASAC Brent in Miami and so advised him.

Former Ambassador JOSEPH P. KENNEDY, Palm Beach, Florida, yesterday gave me a letter addressed to [REDACTED], Chicago, Illinois.

Mr. KENNEDY said this indicated a [REDACTED] of the [REDACTED] may be contemplating furnishing an article to some one of the new expose magazine, trying to embarrass the KENNEDY family. He said someone, he could not recall who but may have been [REDACTED] or someone else, had mentioned to him that a [REDACTED] in [REDACTED] was a dangerous character, and he had written [REDACTED] to that effect. Subsequently, [REDACTED] had discharged this [REDACTED], named [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] sent Mr. KENNEDY a letter postmarked Beverly Hills, California, 1/10/56, addressed to [REDACTED], Chicago, Illinois, with the return address [REDACTED], Beverly Hills, California, and signed [REDACTED]. # Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : MR. L. V. BOARDMAN

DATE: January 16, 1956

FROM : MR. A. H. BELMONT

SUBJECT: JOSEPH P. KENNEDY

SYNOPSIS:

Files reviewed on captioned individual pursuant to Director's request of 1-13-56, after Kennedy was appointed by the President to a special board of consultants to review work of the Government's foreign intelligence activities. Kennedy, an outstanding financier and industrialist, was born 9-6-88; received an A.B. degree from Harvard in 1912. He was head of the Securities and Exchange Commission for one year, 1934; Ambassador to England, 1937-40; and a member of the Hoover Commission, 1954. Limited inquiry was conducted at the request of the Department of Justice in 1951 concerning allegation that Kennedy, then owner of Merchandise Mart Building in Chicago, gave $100,000 for removal of Government offices from the building. Inquiry was closed 6-7-51 when no specific facts were developed. Files reflect in 1939 the British people were bewildered by Kennedy's attitude while Ambassador as an appeaser and apologist for Chamberlain. In April, 1942, a source of unknown reliability reported James Roosevelt secured exclusive rights for importing liquor into the U.S. from a company which controlled the Scotch whiskey output in England. It was alleged Roosevelt transferred contacts to Kennedy, who was reportedly appointed Ambassador to England so he could handle contacts. In 1954 investigation concerning import and distribution of Scotch whiskey in the U.S. failed to reflect any information substantiating allegation that the liquor company owned by the Kennedy family had violated antitrust laws. In 1953 State Department advised that William Bullitt, former Ambassador to France, stated while Kennedy was Ambassador to London, Kennedy frequently called [redacted] for advice and was reported to have made large financial offers to [redacted] for his services. Kennedy was a special service contact of the Boston Office, 1943-54, and is presently an SAC contact. He has frequently expressed admiration for the Director and the work of the Bureau.

Memorandum to Mr. Boardman

DETAILS:

Background:

Joseph P. Kennedy, outstanding financier and industrialist, was born September 6, 1888; received an A.B. degree from Harvard in 1912. At the age of 25 he was the youngest bank president in the United States. Kennedy quit banking in 1917 and subsequently worked with the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation, spent a number of years producing motion pictures and for several years speculated extensively in the stock market. In 1934 Kennedy was appointed head of the Securities and Exchange Commission but resigned from that position in 1935. He was Ambassador to England from 1937 to 1940. In 1954 Kennedy served on the Hoover Commission which made a survey of various Government bureaus together with recommendations for reorganization. In February, 1955, the White House requested a name check concerning Kennedy, stating that he was being considered for appointment to the President's Commission on Veterans Pensions.

Miscellaneous Information in Bureau Files:

Bufiles reflect no complete investigation concerning Kennedy; however, in May, 1951, a limited inquiry was requested by the Department of Justice concerning an allegation that Kennedy, then owner of Merchandise Mart Building in Chicago, Illinois, gave $100,000 for removal of Government offices from the building. The complainant claimed that the allegation was received by him from a friend, who when contacted by the Bureau, denied furnishing the allegation. The inquiry was closed on 6-7-51 at the request of the Department since no specific facts were developed. (58-2402)

The June 1, 1939, issue of "Foreign Observer," which quoted remarks from the privately circulated and well-informed publication "Week" of London, stated that the British were bewildered as to why Kennedy was allowed to remain as Ambassador considering his record as an appeaser and apologist for Chamberlain. (94-5-4-763)

In April, 1942, a source of unknown reliability advised that James Roosevelt traveled to England just prior to the repeal of prohibition and secured exclusive U.S. liquor rights from the company which controlled almost the entire Scotch whiskey output in England. Due to pressure from U.S. liquor interests, James Roosevelt allegedly transferred these contacts to Kennedy who was reportedly appointed Ambassador to England so he could handle the contacts. It was further alleged that Senator Lye had been advised of the above but was reluctant to act on the information since its disclosure would likely have created disunity while the Nation was at war. In October, 1953, the Antitrust Division of the Department requested the Bureau to conduct investigation concerning the importation and distribution of Scotch whiskey in the United States, stating that allegations had been received implying that the United States Ambassador to England probably designated the agencies in the United States. It was further alleged that members of the Roosevelt family possibly owned interests in the Somerset Company, Inc., Scotch whiskey importers, formerly owned by Joseph P. Kennedy. Extensive investigation which was concluded in April, 1954, failed to develop any information substantiating allegations or revealing possible antitrust violation. Investigation revealed the Kennedy family had owned Somerset Company, Inc., but that Joseph P. Kennedy had never been an officer of the company and owned about 2% of its stock. (100-99500; 60-4434-1-9,38)

On July 9, 1953, the State Department furnished a summary concerning [redacted] reflecting that on October 13, 1939, William Bullitt, former United States Ambassador in Paris, stated that when Kennedy was Ambassador in London, Kennedy called [redacted] every day and sometimes four times a day to ask [redacted] advice on important issues, which advice Kennedy followed. MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON
MR. BOARDMAN
MR. BELMONT
MR. NICHOLS

Yesterday, I saw the former American Ambassador to Great Britain, Mr. Joseph P. Kennedy, Sr., who has recently been named as a member of the President's Board of Consultants on Foreign Intelligence Activities.

Mr. Kennedy stated that he wished to just discuss with me generally the over-all picture concerning this matter and some of the ideas which he had in mind. He stated he found at the first meeting held of this Board that there had been no definite program or plan set up as to how the Board would function. The Board has practically no staff and Mr. Kennedy said he, therefore, felt that the thing to do was to find out from CIA and the other agencies engaged in foreign intelligence activities what some of their problems were and then have these problems assigned to individual members of the Board to study and come up with recommendations for a solution. He stated he had indicated at the first meeting that if the Board intended to do a thorough and complete job, all the Board members should take apartments in Washington and move here for a full-time job until it was completed. This did not meet with the approval of the other members. Mr. Kennedy stated, therefore, during the last several days he has had conferences with CIA and has taken over the analysis of one problem, namely, that of duplication of coverage abroad by the Military, CIA and the State Department. He believes he has not only obtained the necessary facts, but has a solution for the same which he intends to explore during his present visit in Washington with representatives of the three agencies mentioned. Mr. Kennedy stated that this was the only procedure he believed could be followed if there was not going to be full time given by the Commission as a whole over a period of some months.

Recreation Area For Youths Planned

The former U.S. Ambassador to Great Britain, Honorable Joseph P. Kennedy, has long been interested in the welfare of the young people of this Nation. Recently, funds were made available from the Joseph P. Kennedy, Jr., Foundation to erect a skating rink and lounge in Hyannis, Massachusetts, as a memorial to Mr. Kennedy's son who was killed in World War II. Through a citizens' committee, consideration was given to various projects which would best suit the needs of the youth of Cape Cod, where Mr. Kennedy has a summer residence. The rink and lounge was decided upon inasmuch as it was the most practical and popular choice. It can be converted during the summer months for square dancing, tennis and other activities.

Dear Edgar:

Thank you for sending along a copy of the current issue of "The Investigator" and thank you also for being kind enough to include our project on your very select list.

Bobby and his wife and five children came down for a few days to visit with us and he is more enthusiastic than ever about J. Edgar Hoover and the F.B.I. and he has many incidents to back up his enthusiasm.

Allen Dulles came down to visit Palm Beach and asked me to lunch with him yesterday. I asked him what he thought of Marilyn Monroe, Jayne Mansfield and Anita Ekberg. He said that he had never heard of the last two and then I asked him how he liked Perry Como and he asked me what he did.

My best to you always.

Dear Edgar:

[redacted] called me up this morning and asked me if I had noticed some newspaper-syndicated articles of May 5 regarding the [redacted] interview of [redacted] on Sunday night.

I said that I had not seen them and if I had seen them, I would not have read them because anything which emanates from [redacted] and [redacted] automatically establishes itself as unreliable.

[redacted] read some of the quotes to me and I think that the only people who could find one iota of truth in any of his statements are unsympathetic to our Government. For one [redacted] or [redacted], you could find millions of high-standing Americans who would deny every one of his allegations. It could be that [redacted] has not recovered from entertaining the Russian Ambassador at his home a couple of weeks ago.

I am sure that you are mad enough to make fifty answers; but I am also sure that you would only be giving publicity to statements which, I am positive, have gone almost completely unnoticed. I felt just as indignant when the [redacted] interview with [redacted] permitted [redacted] to say that somebody else had written Jack's Profiles in Courage. I was for suing [redacted] up hill and down dale in every community in the United States that had an ABC station; but the apology from ABC calmed me down.

And all the advice at that time was, "Forget it; if people don't know Jack well enough to know that he would never be a party to this, then you are wasting your time and your money to try and persuade them that Jack is worthwhile."

Certainly, with your personal record and the reputation of the F.B.I., no statement of yours is necessary. Five million [REDACTED] could not do you or the F.B.I. one bit of harm. [REDACTED] has not a good enough reputation-- even amongst his own associates-- to justify your losing one minute's sleep. (92)(c)

I repeat what I have said so many times before: This is the greatest organization in the Government and you have performed the greatest public service of any man that I know.

Best to you always.

Dear Joe:

Many thanks for your letter of May 7, 1958, concerning the remarks of [REDACTED] during his recent interview on the [REDACTED] program.

Certainly this scurrilous and unwarranted attack on the FBI is a classic distortion of facts and, as you suggested, does not deserve the dignity of a rejoinder.

I appreciate your comments relative to a similar experience which you had, and your generous

Information was received telephonically from the Washington Field Office (WFO) that a Bureau Agent, this morning, interviewed [REDACTED] said he had been contacted yesterday by [REDACTED] is known to the WFO as an "angle man" around Washington who is definitely not reliable.)

[REDACTED] endeavored to induce [REDACTED] to put up a $90,000 fund for a smear campaign against [REDACTED] contending that [REDACTED] was the number one communist in the United States and would be President someday unless something was done about it. [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] he wasn't interested.

[REDACTED] asked [REDACTED] if he knew Robert Kennedy and was informed by Pryor that he had known the Kennedy family for years. [REDACTED] then suggested to [REDACTED] that he alert Robert Kennedy that physical acts were going to be taken against the Kennedy children and against Robert's father, Joseph Kennedy. This is all the information furnished by [REDACTED] and he did not supply any specifics as to who was going to take this action, when it was going to be taken, etcetera.

[REDACTED] told our Agent that he would probably tell Robert Kennedy about this incident and he didn't have any objection if the FBI told Kennedy.

ACTION TAKEN

EX-108

REC-6

94-37808-28

When the above information was received, it was determined Robert Kennedy was then in the Caucus Room at the Senate in connection with the current hearings. Since he couldn't be reached on the phone, the facts were related to Kennedy's administrative assistant who said he would go to the Caucus Room and advise him. Kennedy called back at the conclusion of the morning session of the hearings and said he greatly appreciated our alerting him to this and that he had not been previously informed by [REDACTED]. Kennedy said his father is presently travelling in France but that he would insure that his father was properly advised concerning this matter.

Reference is made to Miami letter to Director, 2/1/56, captioned "JOSEPH P. KENNEDY, BUREAU CONTACT"; Bulet to Miami, 2/8/58, captioned "JOSEPH P. KENNEDY, SAC CONTACT;" and CG letter to Director, 2/24/56, same caption, wherein it was indicated CG indices contain no reference to [REDACTED].

On 9/29/58 a [REDACTED], Chicago, Illinois, telephone [REDACTED], telephonically communicated with this office advising that she was calling for [REDACTED] Chicago. (SA [REDACTED]) CG advises that this [REDACTED] is [REDACTED]

She related that they had had a discussion the other night concerning a [REDACTED], whom they had hired three years ago as a [REDACTED] but who had been employed only a short time, approximately one month, when they had to discharge her. [REDACTED] related that [REDACTED] has sent "threatening" letters to [REDACTED], the nature of which she could not or would not explain. [REDACTED] noted that [REDACTED] had been acting peculiar during her employment with the [REDACTED] and that when [REDACTED] was discharged and had left the premises they had discovered numerous minor thefts of money and articles from the [REDACTED] home. [REDACTED] advised that she was calling this office inasmuch as [REDACTED] had advised her that [REDACTED] was being sought by the FBI and that this information might be of assistance.

There is no indication in the Chicago indices of information relating to [REDACTED] other than the above-referenced material.

[REDACTED] was described by [REDACTED] as being a former model, age about 42 in 1955, build large, hair dark brown, height 5'6 or 7", [REDACTED], and that she has a boy named [REDACTED]. According to [REDACTED], the [REDACTED] sends considerable clothing for [REDACTED] boy.

The above is being furnished to the Bureau for information in the event [REDACTED] is being sought and/or is in receipt of other information concerning [REDACTED] other than referred to in above-referenced communications. Since the recipient of the letters referred to by [REDACTED] namely [REDACTED], did not see fit to personally communicate with this office in the event they contained a threat, and since this appears to be a technique of [REDACTED] of threatening to divulge personal activities and eccentricities of households in the way of a "sociological study" as mentioned in the KENNEDY matter, no attempt will be made by the CG Division to acquire the contents of the aforesaid letters, particularly since the complainant, [REDACTED], or the recipient, [REDACTED], requested no assistance in this matter.

It appears that [REDACTED] is either resorting to the use of such letters with a threat to damage reputations for either the purpose of obtaining good references, re-employment or something of material value. It is also noted, referring to the KENNEDY matter, that she gave a return address of Beverly Hills, California, and that she is known to receive clothing from the [REDACTED] [REDACTED], that she associates with people of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] noting that the addresses for [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] are in a rather exclusive area of the Chicago Division. (b)(7)(c)(b)(3)

There are no identifiable references in CG indices concerning [REDACTED] or [REDACTED] Chicago, and no additional references concerning [REDACTED].

No consideration is being given to turning this information over to the postal authorities in view of the contents of [REDACTED] letter set forth in the KENNEDY matter, and instructions contained in Bulet to Miami, 2/8/58. (7-6-56)

In February, 1956, Mr. Joseph P. Kennedy made available to the Miami Office a letter addressed to his son-in-law, Sargent Schriver, who was President of Education, Chicago, Ill., which indicated a [REDACTED], might be contemplating furnishing an article to some one of the expose magazines trying to embarrass the Kennedy family. Mr. Kennedy made no request for any action but turned it over stating he felt the Bureau ought to have a record of this person. The Miami Office was advised 2-8-56 to forward the letter from [REDACTED] to the FBI Laboratory so a photograph could be made and retained in the Anonymous Letter File. Upon return of the original letter, it was to be returned to Mr. Kennedy and no mention was to be made to Mr. Kennedy that the Bureau was retaining a copy of the letter. No investigation was conducted in this matter.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Special Agent [redacted] Resident Agent at Hyannis, Massachusetts, talked with Mr. Joseph P. Kennedy at his home at Hyannisport, Massachusetts over the past week-end. Mr. Kennedy told Agent [redacted] that he had just returned from France where he had been vacationing at his Riviera home. He anticipates being in this general area until some time in December, when he plans to go to his Palm Beach, Florida home for the winter months.

Mr. Kennedy told Special Agent [redacted] that he had received many favorable comments regarding the willingness of his son, Senator John F. Kennedy, to compromise his own labor bill in favor of labor legislation which he knew would be acceptable to the other members of the Senate. Mr. Kennedy indicated that the comments coming to his attention expressed the opinion that the Senator had proved his "bigness" by exhibiting a willingness to support a bill other than his own, which will do something to control labor abuses.

I thought you would be interested in these comments of Mr. Kennedy.

Sincerely,

SUBJECT: PROPOSED BOMBINGS LEGISLATION

Attached are an editorial from the "Washington Evening Star" of December 15 entitled "Federal Bombing Law" and also a copy of David Lawrence's column from the "Evening Star" of the same date. It will be noted that both the editorial and Lawrence's column are in favor of the legislation which would give the FBI more authority in bombing matters.

[redacted] informs me that he has talked to [redacted] on several occasions regarding our participation in the bombings. Nevertheless, [redacted] apparently persists in his idea and it is unlikely anything we might say to [redacted] at this time would change his mind. I do think, however, that it might be beneficial for me to have a talk with [redacted] along the same lines as I spoke to [redacted] about several days ago pointing out what we are doing at the present time in bombing cases.

It will be further recalled that SAC Laughlin in Boston is personally acquainted with Joseph Kennedy, the Senator's father, and it is thought it might be well for him to pay a courtesy call on the elder Kennedy and lead into the subject matter of the bombings and point out to him our activities in these bombing matters at the present time in order that he might inform the Senator if he so desires.

Dear Edgar:

I think that your article, "Communist Illusion and Democratic Reality" is a real masterpiece. I am sure that you have sent a copy to Jack; but if you have not, I will give him mine when he returns here at the end of next week.

I do believe though that it might be well to send one to Ted Sorensen who is his first assistant and who is in charge of speeches. You might say that I have asked you to do this with the idea that there are many thoughts in this article that Jack could be using as he goes around the country talking to audiences who are completely sympathetic to your ideas, but who lack the imagination as to how to put them into effect. It just might do some good.

Thank you for remembering me and with warmest personal regards, I am

Insiders Tell Ike, Jack Admiration

PALM SPRINGS—Former President Eisenhower was pleased with the news that President Kennedy had recommended the restoration of his rank as a five star general.

I was sitting next to Eisenhower's pal, George E. Allen in the Palm Springs ball park and Ike was sitting next to George. I told Allen I suspected Eisenhower was "fond of President Kennedy."

"You're right," said Allen. "He thinks Kennedy's a great guy—but wait a minute! Maybe I might be pulling a Senator Mundt!"

Later on I dropped by to visit former Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy at the Marion Davies home near Tamarisk Country Club. I told Kennedy what Allen had said about Eisenhower's feeling towards his son.

Kennedy grinned broadly.

"I really believe Eisenhower thinks a lot of Jack," he said. "I know one thing for sure. Jack thinks a lot of him, and always has."

The 72-year-old Kennedy had played 18 holes of golf with Tony Curtis across the street at Tamarisk. He later went to the mineral baths in Palm Springs.

Now he was back home and relaxing in a sports shirt and Bermuda shorts. This is a 72-year-old who doesn't look his age. He's pretty much a fast moving race horse of a man.

I told him I had read Dave Sentner's story which splked growing rumors that President Kennedy, and his Attorney General brother, Robert, had a rift with J. Edgar Hoover.

"I don't know where those ridiculous rumors start," said this illustrious father of illustrious sons. "Nothing could be further from the truth."

"Both Jack and Bob admire Hoover," he said. "They feel they're lucky to have him as head of the FBI. Hoover is a wonderful, dedicated man, and don't think Jack and Bob don't realize it. They've always admired him."

Although Kennedy has spent much time in Hollywood in the past, when he was connected with the motion picture industry, this was his first visit to the Palm Springs area.

Now that his son is in the White House it is getting so Kennedy doesn't have much privacy anymore. Comparatively few people ever heard of Hyannisport until Jack put it on the map. The Kennedys have homes there which once had privacy. But now when the President goes back there Hyannisport is over run with newspapermen and visitors.

It is the same way with the Kennedy home in Palm Beach. So the elder Kennedy came over here to get away from it all, play golf and rest up for a couple of weeks. Police were guarding the home the first day, which didn't make too much sense because the home is difficult to find anyway.

Kennedy thinks the desert is great. His only complaint was that it took him and Curtis four hours to get in 18 holes at crowded Tamarisk.

As Pegler Sees It:

The Strange Case Of Tyler Kent

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

B RITISH LAW and the vaunted British justice were nullified in 1940 for the benefit of Franklin D. Roosevelt and Winston Churchill so that Tyler Kent, a patriotic clerk in the American Embassy, could be sent to prison and thus muzzled for seven years. By the time he got out Roosevelt was dead and a conspiracy of silence by the "court historians" in both countries had set in. It is still in force.

PEGLER

Kent was tried in the Central Criminal Court in Old Bailey in October, 1940.

Admittedly he pilfered Embassy documents of no money value all of which had been returned except some which were in his squalid living quarters when a raid occurred. He insisted that he had a patriotic duty to communicate information out of these documents to members of the U.S. Congress and thus, to warn the American people that Roosevelt and Churchill were carrying on secret correspondence.

Ambassador Joseph Kennedy had quit the job by the time Kent went to trial. He had professed to oppose our embroilment in war and the crooked schemes called Lend-Lease. For a long time Kennedy got credit for moral courage in quitting in protest against Lend-Lease. But it is not clear that this was why he quit. And he certainly threw Kent to the wolves in circumstances which muzzled the only one who tried to alarm public opinion at home.

Although Kent was entitled to diplomatic immunity, Kennedy disowned him and the British court and the British equivalent of our Department of Justice gave him the works in a trial more secret than open. The text of the messages between Roosevelt and Churchill never was entered on the court record. There were 500 of these in the Kent case, but Churchill admits that there were more than 3,000.

Most of them—written prior to May, 1940—were an outrageous violation of law and protocol between nations because Churchill was not the head of the British Government at the time. Thus Roosevelt was really undermining the official British Government to make a stealthy deal looking to the day when Churchill would become Prime Minister.

Married and Vanished

After the second war, Kent came home, married a wealthy woman and vanished. Kennedy then tried to discourage discussion of the Kent case and his own negative part in it by insinuating that there was something—"wrong" with Kent's morals. But Kent was never so charged and thus had no chance to face all accuser and vindicate himself.

By a strange windfall the Yale University library acquired a transcript of the trial record. However, it is incomplete because the Embassy refused to produce hundreds of documents which might have helped Kent to establish the patriotic purity of his motive. The British court embraced technicalities which nullified, but only for this particular instance, the ancient immunity of Ambassadors and all Embassy staff from prosecution. But the same court refused to apply the same innovation to the documents which Kent asked for. They were inviolate.

The son of a minor American diplomat, Kent had lived most of his years abroad and had been in Moscow until he was transferred to London. He then tried to get another transfer to Berlin, but prosecution made little out of that except probably to infuriate the jurors against Kent.

Kent had met a young woman, Anna Wolkoff, the daughter of an Imperial Russian admiral. Possibly she sought him out. She and her father were naturalized English citizens, but Anna hated Communists and joined the British Fascist movement and introduced Kent to some of its members. It appeared that she did communicate with Lord Haw-Haw, the American from Brooklyn, whose mocking broadcasts from Berlin infuriated the British so badly that they hanged him in London after the war notwithstanding his American citizenship. But Kent did not communicate with Haw-Haw and moreover the United States was neutral throughout his activities in London.

As the trial ended Kent complained that the court had not allowed him to put in a letter from the Crown admitting that the prosecution did not intend to claim that he had any part in Miss Wolkoff's communications with Germany. The justice then let him read a copy of such a letter and read it himself. But this was after the verdict and it was not read to the jury.

And it was conceded that none of the documents gave military or naval information which would have been useful to Germany.

Joe Kennedy's variable attitude toward Roosevelt and his war remains a mystery. He openly professed to loathe Roosevelt after his Embassy hitch. But his treatment of Tyler Kent drew a permanent iron curtain across a conspiracy to involve the United States in a war which was none of our business—as Kennedy often said at that time.

In an effort to improve the physical condition of former Ambassador Kennedy, the family has been utilizing facilities of the Rehabilitation Center at Philadelphia. Because of the experimental nature of this treatment the Kennedy family has not acknowledged this publicly. It appears, however, that someone connected with the Rehabilitation Center has talked with the press as a short article appeared in the "Philadelphia Inquirer" to the effect that Ambassador Kennedy was being treated by the Rehabilitation Center.

The Attorney General's private secretary has now advised he is in receipt of a communication from a [REDACTED], Wilmington, Delaware, telephone [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] referred to the publicity in the "Philadelphia Inquirer" about Ambassador Kennedy being treated at the Rehabilitation Center and asked that she be contacted personally as she possessed some information which might be of value. The Attorney General's secretary has advised that the Attorney General would appreciate our ascertaining if [REDACTED] is a responsible citizen and if so to interview her to ascertain just what information she has.

ACTION TO BE TAKEN:

If you approve, the SAC at Baltimore, which office covers Wilmington, Delaware, will be contacted and instructed to identify and interview [REDACTED] in line with the Attorney General's request.

On 7-27-65, [redacted] assigned to the Office of the Chief Postal Inspector, Washington, D. C., telephonically advised that the Postmaster General had received, at his home address, a scurrilous-type letter from [redacted], Seattle, Washington.

According to [redacted] this letter is a carbon copy of one addressed to Mrs. Joe P. [redacted] stated that he was desirous of knowing whether he had possibly a pending case relating to [redacted] or could furnish him with any background information.

A review of Bureau files indicate that in February, 1964, Mr. Tolson received a letter at his home address from [redacted] and subsequently in July, 1964, she addressed a second letter to Mr. Tolson enclosing a copy of a long rambling communication addressed to Pope Paul VI. From the nature of the material in her two communications it is apparent that [redacted] is a mental case and no investigation has been conducted by the Bureau.

[redacted] was advised concerning our limited correspondence from [redacted]. He expressed his appreciation.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

Just in case you have not heard the following story, I have decided that you should be informed about it so that if it contains any truth you may (while yet you are in control of the F. B. I. ) take proper action to counteract the evil influence of the people involved whose connections very probably reach deeply into the U. S. State Department and the highly secret C. I. A. Organization. I believe that you and your organization yet represent the grass roots integrity of the American Way of Life and sensibly conservative Democratic Form of Government both of which appear to be fast vanishing from the contemporary scene.

The rumor is circulating to the effect that for the political assistance given by Joseph Kennedy to the successful Presidential Campaign of Franklin D. Roosevelt that Joseph Kennedy was rewarded by the important political appointment as U. S. Ambassador to the Court of St. James, London, England, just prior to W. W. II. Being Irish & hating the British, Kennedy made himself so obnoxious & unwelcome in England by advocating that the U. S. A. permit Germany to conquer England that Churchill demanded that Roosevelt recall Kennedy & replace him with another more friendly U. S. Ambassador to England. However, before this was done it is said that Scotland Yard Detectives, who kept Kennedy under close surveillance, proved quite conclusively that at that time Joseph Kennedy was associated with the International Communist Party. This news item is said to have been printed in England shortly after John Kennedy's murder, but this news item was for unknown reasons immediately squashed & never crossed the Atlantic.

Now, if there be any truth in this story, perhaps this account contains the answer to the riddle of the 2 Kennedy murders - plus answers to a great many other relevant questions regarding the fiasco of the Cuban Bay of Pigs when Kennedy reportedly withdrew all U. S. effective air support from the Bay of Pigs Invasion at just the critical moment. Could Kennedy & Kurchev have secretly planned this fiasco, at the same time pretending to fight & threaten each other in order to fool the American people?? Did Robert Kennedy really have a Rare Love for the lower classes of the nation or did he & his brother actually entertain ulterior motives in their bid for political control of the United States Government? I believe if anyone is capable of sorting out the truth of this mess that you & your men can do it before it is too late.

Sincerely, 94-37808

(b)(7)(c)

[REDACTED]

New York 31, N. Y.
August 26, 1961

Dear Mr. Kennedy:

I have no desire to harm an Irishman, and certainly not a Kennedy, or to work against the U.S.A., which I love so dearly. But, I do not intend to have my identity taken from me, nor my life, my freedom, or my money I'm entitled to.

Knowing how persons with immense power are frequently forced to hire others, blank check style, to get important jobs done, I do not hold what happened to me, against you. I am quite ruthless, myself. However, I won't stand still for the perpetuation of the error, by those inimical to us both.

From the beginning, I would have been on your team, and I have every reason to believe it would have been your desire, also, if you had not been denied the truth.

First, I am one of America's "best known and beloved women," highly respectable, of high status locally, and internationally, even without money, and in brown skin.

I have more power than you, even now, although penniless, jobless, and living on the charity of friends and relatives, with D.C. claiming "a question of my identity and citizenship." And, even after fraudulent imprisonment by some communist controlled lower echelon, far removed and unknown to you.

It pains me to see JFK suffer and stand helplessly by, while our way of life is eroded away, when he is so talented, full of heart, and patriotism. I was born and reared as English and Irish, and understand his feelings quite well. But, I will sacrifice him, you, the whole Kennedy clan, and every man, woman and child on U.S. soil, before I'll give an inch in exercising my Divine rights. You should not wish it otherwise, coming from the same European roots as I.

I am not a Negro, I am just brown. They hate me and have tried to kill me all my life. But, I am better able to use them against you, than you are, against me.

Before writing this letter, I have laid the necessary groundwork to battle you or to join you, whichever you choose. I would prefer to join you, but not in sacrificing myself, my person, my freedom, my identity, or any money or entitlements accruing to me by birth. Since you like power, I'd suggest you join forces with me, and throw the weight of the Kennedy name behind me, not against me. I, as Kaiserine to all Germans, and descendant of Catherine the Great to all Russians, with entire underworld and law enforcement cooperation and protection, Queen Elizabeth just becomes a mere Scottish lass and the British throne a decayed item that should have been destroyed like the British Empire, long ago.

As Umberto will tell you, the House of Savoy considers it (the British throne) negligible, as does Catherine of Aragon's heirs, such as I.

I ask nothing but the right to earn my own living, in freedom, and to direct and control my own life and affairs, myself. Otherwise, you have my entire cooperation & loyalty. Please have JFK open the doors to the Iron Curtain I've been placed behind, along with Freedom fighters from all over the world, who love and fight for and with me.

Faithfully yours,

you choose. I would prefer to join you, but not in sacrificing myself, my person, my freedom, my identity, or any money or entitlements accruing to me by birth. ~~Since~~ Since you like power, I'd suggest you join forces with me, and throw the weight of the Kennedey name behind me, not again & me. I, As Kaiserine to all Germans, and descendant of Catherine the Great to all Russians, with entire Underworld and Law Enforcement cooperation a decayed item that should have been destroyed like the British Empire, long ago.

As Umberto will tell you,
the House of Savoy considers it negligible, as does such as I.

I ask nothing but the right myself. Otherwise, you have my entire cooperation & loyalty.

Please have JFK open the doors from all over the world, who love and fight for and with me.

Faithfully Yours

As Pegler Sees It:

Kennedy Clan's Elder Statesman

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

THE ELDER STATESMAN of the United States and the only real advisor of the reigning President is his father, Joseph Patrick Kennedy. No other confidential friend or namedropper since the synthetic office of advisor to presidents was publicized into artificial authority by press agents and gullible journalists has ever had as much authority, nor Joe Kennedy's shrewd and patriotic intelligence.

PEGLER

It would be a kindness to Barney Baruch just to refrain from appraising his wisdom and his authority with Wilson, Roosevelt and, until the explosion, Truman.

Harry Hopkins was only shoulder-high to F. D. Roosevelt at best.

E. M. House, the soap-wrapper colonel from Texas, undoubtedly did hypnotize Woodrow Wilson, but he overplayed his hand and anyway he was just a cheap adventurer who flagrantly double-crossed and mocked Wilson among the English aristocracy and wound up as nothing. True, Frank Roosevelt did pay him homage in a pilgrimage to his home at Magnolia, Mass., after Roosevelt's first nomination, but the little that we have credibly learned about that meeting amounts to no substantial historical importance.

Joe Kennedy bore a partisan loyalty toward Franklin D. Roosevelt, but, frankly, despised him as all Boston Irish of that generation who pioneered for Irishness at Harvard despised most of the aristocracy. There is no doubt that, for whatever value the status may have, Roosevelt was an aristocrat. His wife was, and is, too, and this quality made it impossible for either of them ever to understand respectable, upstanding Americans of whatever color or to refrain from trying to patronize us. We were always "the little people" to those Roosevelts.

Successful On His Merits

Joe Kennedy had to walk alone in his early days at Harvard when the term "no Irish need apply" was still an echo if not an actual phrase in the advertisements for hired help in New England and New York. He was so good-looking in his fifties when I began to know him that I believe he must have been a very devil in Harvard. Kennedys were not welcome at Harvard then, but Joe was so successful on his merits that he could take pity on Arthur J. Goldsmith and introduce him and underwrite him to a quite surprising success among the upper orders of the time.

Goldsmith later became the kapok dragon of the Waldorf Tower, with a sinister apparatus of letter-head political fronts which bulldozed candidates in the outback and elected or defeated senatorial candidates by the clever use of a few thousand New York dollars in West Virginia, Montana, and Vermont.

The story of the organized determination of the whole Kennedy tribe to elect first, Joe Jr., and after his death, Jack, to the presidency is a myth. Like many families these Kennedys had a fearsome reputation as kids in Bronxville as a wild, noisy gang. The boys fought the girls and the girls fought back. They screamed and squalled and threw things. Whoever got to the bathroom first in the morning had to defend it, and whoever wanted a certain tie or pair of socks had to prevail by conquest.

But Jack can telephone Joe for the last word on politics and economics and whatever his enemies may say of Joe they can't say he has anything against riches or capitalism or in favor of Moscow or the intellectuals of the British Foreign Office who often turn up in the lee of the Kremlin.

Schlesinger? Murrow? Bowles? Galbraith? Keynes?

They will not prevail while the elder statesman, the old man of the clan, is as close as the phone at Jack's elbow.

DEAR MR HOSCHER:

HAD THE COSA NOSTRA THUGS

COULD HAVE BEEN "LEGITIMATE" CROOKS.
[ LIKE YOUR WALL-STREET GANGSTERS ]
HISTORY WILL, I'M SURE, DESCRIBE THIS DECADENT NATION OF

AS A NATION OF THIEVES AND PHONEY

COMMUNISM DESERVES TO

Dear Mr. Hoover:

When you finish with the Valachi Trial, maybe you can have another national television show entitled, "How Joseph Kennedy Sr. made $400,000,000.00 honestly "

Had the Cosa Nostra thugs been properly schooled, they too could have been "legitimate" crooks. (Like your Wall Street gangsters)

History will, I'm sure, describe this decapent Nation of whore (Lizzy) and money-worshippers as a Nation of thieves and phoney baloneys (hypocrites).

Communism deserves to be feared. As you've said repeatedly. Its seeds have been extremely well planted & await blossoming & fruition.

[REDACTED]
Wilmington, Delaware, was contacted by Special Agent [REDACTED] on May 1, 1964. She advised that she was a Protestant and a Republican and did not want to make any personal impression on the Kennedys, but admired them as a family interested in each other's welfare.

She stated she wanted to give Mr. Kennedy or a member of the Kennedy family some information for his personal use and consideration. She sent the Attorney General a card, feeling he would be the easiest one in the family to reach.

She advised that a few weeks ago she read in the newspaper that former Ambassador Kennedy had entered a rehabilitation center in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She knows this rehabilitation center to be located at 8801 Stanton Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She feels that the Kennedy family should consider taking Mr. Kennedy out of this rehabilitation center. To clarify this, [REDACTED] stated she has a friend, [REDACTED] employed in [REDACTED], Radnor, Pennsylvania. [REDACTED] daughter was operated on at Children's Hospital in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in December, 1962, by [REDACTED], who is reportedly the head of the rehabilitation center at 8801 Stanton Avenue. [REDACTED] said the operation on [REDACTED] daughter was unsuccessful and the twelve-year-old child has been crippled since the operation. Several doctors who have treated the child since her operation have observed that the crippling results from the operation could have been avoided.

[REDACTED] said that a few months after the operation on the [REDACTED] child, [REDACTED] was dismissed from the staff of the Children's Hospital. Consequently, she said, she felt that [REDACTED] was incompetent and she herself would not want her parent under his care.

[REDACTED] said that she was sure [REDACTED] would talk to a representative of the Attorney General if he so desired.
